INSURANCE

SOCIAL SECURITY

☑ European students

Students already covered by their country's social security should obtain the European Health Insurance Card (EHIC) from their social security service provider before coming to France. The EHIC must be valid for the duration of your stay in Lyon. This card ensures that students have health insurance in Europe, and also includes health cover for trips within the European Economic Area and Switzerland.

☑ Non-European students or European students living outside of Europe

Students must be registered under the social security scheme as soon as they are enrolled in a tertiary education program.

There are two bodies that govern student social security (compulsory) and mutual insurance (optional): LMDE (www.lmde.com) and SMERRA (www.smerra.fr). Students are required to pay 213€ (price for 2014-2015) when they enrol or upon their arrival at Jean Moulin Lyon 3 University.

(Please note: American Express cards are not accepted).

As soon as you are enrolled, you will receive a certificate from social security. Keep it in a safe place as you may need it throughout your stay.

Nota bene : students over 28 years of age do not fall under the same social security scheme. For more information, please visit the International Relations Office.

Students from Quebec who are registered with Régie de l'Assurance Maladie du Québec (RAMQ) do not need to sign up for social security. They have to produce a certificate.

HELPFUL TIP!

Health Insurance : social security does not completely reimburse medical expenses, however you can choose to pay for additional health insurance that will do so.

LIABILITY INSURANCE (ASSURANCE RESPONSABILITÉ CIVILE)

This insurance covers personal injuries or damage to property that may have been caused by you and is primarily aimed towards students who participate in sports. This insurance is compulsory for students who practice a sport.

All international students will need to provide a proof of liability insurance to get their student card (see house insurance on p.26).

- ☑ Private university residences

ADIL | www.adil69.org

HOUSING TAX (TAXE D'HABITATION)

In France, residences are subject to a housing tax that is calculated according to the amount of rent paid by the student. As a general rule, this amount is around the equivalent of one month's rent (this can vary depending on the suburb you live in). This tax is due on the 1 January, the year following the beginning of your tenancy. As a result, you may receive a tax assessment notice once you have already returned to your home country.

HOUSING INSURANCE (ASSURANCE HABITATION)

Housing insurance is compulsory in France, therefore, in order to find a place to live, students are required to take out housing insurance as soon as they arrive in the country. It covers public liability required by students to validate their enrolment at Jean Moulin Lyon 3 University.

RENT ASSISTANCE (AIDE AU LOGEMENT)

As a student in France you can benefit from receiving rent assistance*. This payment will appear in your account each month, but note that it will take approximately two months before you start receiving payments.

After having signed your rental contract, you can start your rent assistance application online. You will need to fill out a form, print and send it off along with any other documents required. If you are not a European citizen, you will also need to send a photocopy of both sides of your valid residence permit.

For any enquiries, visit the Caisse d'Allocation Familiale (CAF)

CAF | www.caf.fr

ACCOMMODATION EXPENSES

Fees and charges (frais de dossier)

You may be charged a reservation fee for certain residences and apartments. These fees vary between residences and agencies and cover costs related to the management of the property, the state of the property upon your arrival and departure, repair work to communal areas, etc.

* If you have a visa with a temporary residence card exemption you are not eligible to receive rent assistance payments from CAF.

Deposit (caution)

You will be required to pay a deposit for your rental property, which will cover any potential costs relating to damage to the property or unpaid rent. This sum usually amounts to one or two month's worth of rent and should be paid when the contract is signed and before moving into the residence. Your deposit will be reimbursed within the two months following your departure (if the state of the property has been deemed satisfactory).

MOVING IN & MOVING OUT

Landlord (bailleur)

Owner of the property.

Rental contract and lease
(contrat de location, bail)

A binding document that outlines the rights and responsibilities of tenants and landlords.

Property Inspection (états des lieux)

When you move into your residence, the owner or real estate agent will conduct an inspection of the property. This will serve as an inventory of the state of the residence and any property such as dishwashers, furniture, etc. The inventory should be as precise as possible to avoid any litigation occurring at the end of the tenancy and must be drawn up upon the arrival and before the departure of the tenant.

Departure notice (préavis)

When it comes time for you to move out, you will need to hand in your departure notice to your landlord so that he/she can arrange to end your lease. This letter can be sent by registered post and should specify when you intend to leave the residence. Departure notices must be given in advance and their timeframe is subject to the conditions of the rental contract.
