ENROLLING

Procedure for individual students only

When ?

- From 5 July to 21 July and from 18 August to 1 September if you live in France.
- From 18 August to 1 of September if you live abroad.
- From 18 August to 30 of September for the Master 1 and 2 in Humanities and at the iaelyon and for the Master 2 in Law and Philosophy.

How much ?

You will first have to pay 95€ for the CVEC (Student and Campus Life Contribution).

You will then have to pay the University enrolment fees.

Since the start of the 2019 academic year, non-European international students have been partially exempted from paying differentiated fees. You therefore pay national enrolment fees, i.e., 170€ to enrol in a Bachelor's degree and 243€ to enrol in a Master's degree (2021-22 rates for illustrative purposes).

SPECIFIC CASE

If you are a refugee student, the beneficiary of subsidiary/temporary protection or an asylum seeker, you are exempted from the CVEC fees each year. You will be exempted from the degree enrolment fee if this is your first enrolment in a French university.

Wow ?

- 1st step: By 22 July, at the latest, your login (future student number) will be sent to your personal email address.
- 2nd step: Log on or create an account on www.MesServices.Etudiant.gouv.fr Once you have paid your CVEC, you will receive your CVEC certificate, which contains a code that you need to enter when you enrol and attach to your enrolment file.
- 3rd step: From 5 July, log on to the University's enrolment portal. You will need your login details and password.
www.webinscription.univ-lyon3.fr

To create your password, click on the following link:

www.applications.univ-lyon3.fr/GestionCompteEtu/gestion_compte.aspx

- 4th step: Upload your supporting documents to the Enrolment portal and pay your registration fees online. You will receive your student card when you arrive in Lyon in September.
