7. Interest Rate Derivatives and Swaps
8. Exchange Rate Determination and Forecasting

Part III: Foreign Exchange Exposure

9. Transaction Exposure
10. Translation Exposure
11. Operating Exposure

Prerequisites :

A basic understanding in corporate finance is required (financial statements) for the case studies. Clearly, this is not an easy course. Nevertheless, beginners willing to work hard are more than welcome.

Course objectives:

- 1- Make students familiar with key concepts of international business finance
- 2- Develop a good understanding of the tools & concepts for decision-making in a real context (exercises & case studies)

Assessment:

70% final written exam (in class)

30% Participation to the class, to the case studies & exercises (30%).

Attendance:

In order to participate, students must be present. Nevertheless, a maximum of 2 (two) unexcused absences will be allowed; otherwise no mark will be given. An unexcused absence at a test (final test or continuous assessment) means no credits for the course.
